MERRIMACK – Fimbel Garage Doors will be celebrating 100 years in business with a celebration on June 8 at its Merrimack showroom, 281 Daniel Webster Hwy.

The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Fimbel Garage Doors Vice President and Lead Technician Andrew Fimbel will fire up the grill with hot dogs and hamburgers. A bouncy house will provide hours of entertainment for the young ones, while Fimbel's latest project, a deck and a door off the front of the showroom, will showcase the company's commitment to innovation and improvement. Additionally, Laura Boyce of the Morning Buzz on Rock 101 will be broadcasting live during the event.

In a special collaboration with Adaptive Driving Experience, attendees will learn about this amazing organization that offers a true racing experience for those with a variety of disabilities, including paraplegic, quadriplegic and amputees. Their trademark adaptive race car will be onsite so that attendees can witness firsthand their modified race car and adaptive controls make racing completely accessible to anyone.

Fimbel will also be offering giveaways, including grab bags filled with Hope Bars, and a prize wheel of promotions, including a chance to win a garage door makeover. Bite Me Kupcakez will provide treats for all attendees to enjoy and Rustic Seed and Wellness Seed will offer insights into health and wellness.

“As we celebrate a century of service, we look forward to sharing this milestone with our community,” said Jonathan Fimbel, general manager of Fimbel Garage Doors in Merrimack. “Our 100th anniversary event is a testament to our values – quality, innovation, and commitment to our customers. Please join us as we look forward to the next hundred years of serving you with experience as proven as the overhead door itself.”
